

ROSSES POINT BEACH

The sun was gone, at the end of day, and I walked there

Barefoot in the sand on Rosses Point beach
And there she was, yes all alone, a lovely girl
Sitting in the sand on Rosses Point beach

Chorus (2x)

Rosses Point beach

Rosses Point beach

Sitting, sitting, sitting in the sand on Rosses Point beach

I went to her, and I took her hand, asked for a walk

Together through the sand on Rosses Point beach
And she looked up and gave a smile, Oh what a girl
Sitting in the sand on Rosses Point beach

The moon came up in an ocean breeze, we together

Walking through the sand on Rosses Point beach
And there we were, just hand in hand, till she said lets
Sitting in the sand on Rosses point beach

Her skin was soft and her kisses sweet, as we made love

lying in the sand on Rosses Point beach
A man like me, to meet a girl, so very sweet
Sitting in the sand on Rosses Point beach

We together and all embraced, we felled asleep

Lying in the sand on Rosses Point beach
A new day starts, we got awake, and still we were Sitting in the sand on Rosses Point beach

She went away, at the and of day, and left to me

A broken heart there on Rosses Point beach
What age I'll be, I'll ever dream of the nice girl
Sitting in the sand on Rosses Point beach

Written and composed by Jan Hamelink. October 2010 ©