

TUNES OF THE SEA

CHORUS

So hear, hear, hear the tunes of the sea
The songs of the waters, are poems for me
So hear, hear, hear the tunes of the sea
That's what I need to feel me free

I sailed the oceans for many the years
Till I found me a wife, who didn't like seas
So we settled on land, in a cottage you see
There I start longing for the tunes of the sea

CHORUS

I looked at my dog when I sit on me bench
And see the garden and my neighbour's fence
Then I start dreaming, my eyes full with tears
O what do I long for the tunes of the sea

CHORUS

So after some years to live on the land
The call of the seas I couldn't longer stand
So I said to my wife, I'm sorry my dear
But I go back to the tunes of the sea

CHORUS

And again I am sailing the seas of the world
And sometimes I'm thinking of my lovely girl
She lives on the land, a place far from here
But I am where, are the tunes of the sea

CHORUS

Written on the third of Juli 2009 after an early Morning thunderstorm. Jan Hamelink
